Statements from participants

Ina Fischlin, screenwriter

I travelled to the retreat to learn meditation, to reduce the level of anxiety in my daily life, and to become calmer and more accepting. I'd been interested in meditation for many years. Then I read about Acem in a psychology book and liked the fact that it wasn't based on religion. The retreat has given me a long-needed time-out, great insight into what meditation can do for me and wonderful encounters with people from all around the world.

Martin Ott, jeweller

The evening seminars were very helpful. I've never experienced such detailed understanding of meditation anywhere else. I was able to pick up useful tips and integrate them in my own meditation practice. I've got a much clearer direction to my life themes. The retreat was extremely well organised, and with so many nice and lovely people from various walks of life. It was worth every minute.

Tongtos Mahasuwan, graphic designer

It's been a very fruitful and enriching experience. The retreat helped me get in touch with myself and see more clearly some of my own personality traits. I've become more aware of where I want to go in my life. The guidance groups made me understand the process from within. The scenery is amazingly beautiful, and I thoroughly enjoyed swimming in the lake.

Toni Vicens Miró, teacher

For me, the opportunity to do longer meditations was important. At first, I was disturbed by the fact that I tended to fall asleep, but to my surprise the process helped clarify things in my life. The atmosphere and the social and emotional climate were great and made me feel at home from day one. I would happily recommend this retreat to anyone.
